Dear Mr. Fernley:

Thank you very much for your letter of June 16, 1949 and your thoughtfulness in sending the wartime record of the American brush industry in book form.

May I assure you that both my copy of "BRISTLES AND BRUSHES" and the copy which you kindly sent to Brig. General E.
K. Wright, Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, will be a useful and valuable addition to our library.

Sincerely,

R. H. HILLENKOETTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence

MEMO FOR RECORD: Basic ltr advises that one of smaller industries in this country has compiled record of wartime problems and achievements and they are forwarding in book form BRISTLES AND BRUSHES which they trust will be helpful to CIA in contacts with American industry.
